

Canada Child Benefits Application

Use this form to apply for all child benefit programs, including the Canada child tax benefit (CCTB), the goods and services tax/harmonized sales tax (GST/HST) credit, and the universal child care benefit (UCCB). Unless you indicate otherwise, the information you give on this form will be used for all programs, including federal, provincial, and territorial programs.

For more information about our programs, go to www.cra.gc.ca/benefits, see Booklets T4114, Canada Child Benefits, and RC4210, GST/HST Credit, or call 1-800-387-1193.

How do I apply?

You can apply by using "Apply for child benefits" at www.cra.gc.ca/myaccount or by sending this completed form, with any other required documents, to your tax centre (see "Where do you send this form?" on the next page).

If you are the mother of a newborn and you live in a province that offers the Automated Benefits Application (ABA) service, you can use this service to apply for all your child benefits. If this is the case, do not re-apply using the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) online service or this form. For more information on the ABA service, go to www.cra.gc.ca/aba.

You should apply even if:

- your child only lives with you part of the time (see "Do you share custody of a child?" on the next page); or
- your current adjusted family net income is too high. We recalculate your entitlement every July based on your adjusted family net income for the previous year.

Part 1 – Information about the applicant

Who should complete Part 1?

The person who is primarily responsible for the care and upbringing of the child should complete Part 1.

For CCTB purposes, when both a male and a female parent live in the same home as the child, the female parent is usually considered to be primarily responsible for the care and upbringing of the child (defined on the next page) and should apply. However, if the male parent is primarily responsible, he can apply if he attaches to his application a signed note from the female parent that states he is primarily responsible for all of the children in the household.

Supporting documents

Once we receive your application, we may ask you to provide supporting documents to prove you are primarily responsible for the care and upbringing of the child, such as:

- a signed statement from a nursery or school authority confirming the child's home address and guardian on record;
- a signed statement from a person in a position of authority (such as a lawyer or a social worker);
- a registration form or a receipt from an activity or club the child was enrolled in for the period you indicated; or
- a court order, decree or separation agreement.

You do not have to provide these documents with your application however, if you choose to do so, we may still contact you if we need more information.

What is your current marital status?

Tick "Married" if you have a spouse. Tick "Living common-law" if you have a common-law partner. If you have been separated for less than 90 days, you are still considered to be married or living common-law. For more information, see the definitions on the next page.

Part 2 – Information about your spouse or common-law partner

Complete Part 2 of the application only if you ticked box 1 or 2 in Part 1.

Part 3 – Information about the child(ren)

Complete this part to provide information about the child(ren).

Do not provide information about a child for whom you have already applied, unless the child left your care and has now returned.

Section 1 – When do you need to provide proof of birth?

You need to attach proof of birth for the child if we have not previously paid benefits to anyone for this child, and one of the following applies:

- the child was born outside Canada; or
- the child was born in Canada and is one year of age or older.

Attach clear photocopies of both sides of all pages of one of the following documents for proof of birth:

- birth certificate or birth registration;
- hospital record of birth or record of the physician, nurse, or midwife who attended the birth;
- passport;
- Record of Landing or Confirmation of Permanent Residence issued by Citizenship and Immigration Canada;
- citizenship certificate; or
- Notice of Decision or a Temporary Resident's Permit issued under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act.

Section 2 – Does your application include a period that started more than 11 months ago?

If so, you must attach clear photocopies of both sides of all pages of the following documents for the entire period that started more than 11 months ago:

- proof of citizenship status (for example, a Canadian birth certificate) or immigration status in Canada for you and your spouse or common-law partner, if you have one;
- proof that you resided in Canada, such as a lease agreement, rent receipts, utility bills, or bank statements;
- proof of birth for each child (see above); and
- proof that you were the person who is primarily responsible for the care and upbringing of the child(ren) (defined on the next page) (see "Supporting documents" on this page).

Note

If your application is late, you may not get payments for the entire period requested.

Do you share custody of a child?

A child lives with two different individuals in separate residences on a more or less equal basis. For example:

- the child lives with one parent four days a week and the other parent three days a week;
- the child lives with one parent one week and the other parent the following week; or
- any other regular cycle of alternation.

In these cases, both individuals may be considered primarily responsible for the child's care and upbringing when the child lives with them. Each individual will get 50% of the payment he or she would have received if the child lived with him or her all of the time.

If you have just entered into a shared custody situation for your child(ren), you have to apply by using "Apply for child benefits" at www.cra.gc.ca/myaccount or by sending us this completed form.

If you already get benefits, you have to tell us by using "Apply for child benefits" at www.cra.gc.ca/myaccount, by sending us this completed form indicating shared custody, by calling 1-800-387-1193, or by sending us a letter explaining the shared custody situation. Your payments will be recalculated accordingly.

Part 4 – Change of recipient

Complete this part if the child(ren) had been living with another individual or were maintained by an agency.

Part 5 – Citizenship/Residency status

Complete this part to confirm your and your spouse's or common-law partner's citizenship status.

If you or your spouse or your common-law partner became a Canadian citizen within the last 12 months, you must attach a completed Schedule RC66SCH, Status in Canada/Statement of Income. You must also attach a completed Schedule RC66SCH, if you or your spouse or common-law partner:

- became a new resident or returned as a resident of Canada in the last 2 years; or
- are, as defined in the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act, a permanent resident, protected person (refugee), or temporary resident who has lived in Canada for the previous 18 months.

Part 6 – Direct deposit

Complete this part to have your payments deposited directly into your account at a financial institution in Canada.

Part 7 – Certification

Sign and complete this part. If you completed Part 2, your spouse or common-law partner also has to sign and complete this part.

Child and family benefits online calculator

You can use our online calculator to get an estimate of your child benefits by going to www.cra.gc.ca/benefits-calculator.

Definitions

Common-law partner – this applies to a person who is not your spouse (defined on this page), with whom you are living in a conjugal relationship, and to whom at least one of the following situations applies. He or she:

- a) has been living with you in a conjugal relationship and this current relationship has lasted at least 12 continuous months;

Note

In this definition, 12 continuous months includes any period you were separated for less than 90 days because of a breakdown in your relationship.

- b) is the parent of your child by birth or adoption; or
- c) has custody and control of your child (or had custody and control immediately before the child turned 19 years of age) and your child is wholly dependent on that person for support.

Primarily responsible for the care and upbringing of a child – this means that you are responsible for such things as supervising the child's daily activities and needs, making sure the child's medical needs are met, and arranging for child care when necessary. If there is a female parent who lives with the child, we usually consider her to be this person.

Note

You may not be considered primarily responsible for the care and upbringing of the child if the child is legally, physically, or financially maintained by a child welfare agency. For more information, follow the "Children's special allowances (CSA)" link at www.cra.gc.ca/benefits and select "CSA fact sheet" or call 1-800-387-1193.

Separated – you are separated when you start living separate and apart from your spouse or common-law partner because of a breakdown in the relationship for a period of at least 90 days and you have not reconciled.

Once you have been separated for 90 days (because of a breakdown in the relationship), the effective day of your separated status is the date you started living separate and apart.

Spouse – this applies only to a person to whom you are legally married.
